Outlook of South Asian Shipbreaking Industry

Connect us on Thursday, June 25, 2020 at 12:30 PM (IST), 3:00 PM (Singapore time), 11:00 AM (Dubai time), as we interview our panellists to understand outlook of south asian shipbreaking industry.

Panellists

Capt Siddharth Derashri, Director, Machtrans Ship Management Pvt. Ltd., India	Mr Gaurav Mehta, Director, Priya Blue Industries Pvt. Ltd., India	Mr Sartaj M Imran, Deputy Managing Director, Simni Ship Recycling Industries, Bangladesh	Mr Arif Dar, Director, Venture Green Recyclers, Pakistan

As the recent turn of events amid ongoing pandemic pulled down scrapped vessel prices to record 5-year low, let us listen from the major ship recyclers from these 3 markets and ship management firm come together to discuss the impact of the pandemic on the industry, demand-supply scenario, labour issues, new policies, shift to green recycling, price scenario and outlook for H2 2020. Key points of discussion are:

- 👉 The impact of COVID-19 on shipbreaking in Bangladesh, India and Pakistan
- 👉 Steps being taken for coming months, by ship-breakers, as well as authorities
- 👉 Issues like labour availability, restrictions in previous months on vessel imports, breaking activities etc
- 👉 Demand situation of shipyard scrap in the steel market, and scrap availability
- 👉 Price scenario of fresh vessels booking (containers & tankers)
